

Building a Common Defence Policy for the European Union

Seminar 1

Arts. 42-43 TEU missions in between common security and defence policy and neighbourhood policy: what contribution to regionalism as envisaged in the UN Charter?

25 September 2020, 4:00-7:00 pm
Sala Consiglio, viale Pola, 12

Introduction to the Series of seminars' objectives

Elena Sciso
Luiss University, Director of CROIE

Welcome

Lucio Demichele
Head of CFSP/CSDP Unit – MAECI

Introduction to the Seminar's objectives

Emanuela Pistoia
University of Teramo and Roma Tre

Key-Note Speeches

Foreign and security policy in the neighbourhood: an oxymoron or an opportunity?

Steven Blockmans
Centre for European Policy Studies (CEPS) – University of Amsterdam

European Union's security and defence policy between regional strategies and global ambitions

Nicoletta Pirozzi
Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI)

Discussants

The neighbourhood policy: What lessons may be drawn from the practice?

Sara Poli
University of Pisa

Any promise from past and current practice in the common security and defence policy?

Joris Larik
University of Leiden

Other Contributors

Maria Eugenia Bartoloni
University of Campania – Luigi Vanvitelli

Antonio La Spina
Luiss University, Vice-Director of CROIE

Gianfranco Pellegrino
Luiss University

Michele Risi
Major General ITA Army – KFOR Commander

Lamberto Zannier
Former Special Representative of the UN Secretary-General for Kosovo, Former OSCE Secretary General

Conclusions

Laura Mirachian
Former Head of Mission to ex-Yugoslavia, Former Italian Ambassador to Syria, Former Permanent Representative of Italy at the International Organizations established in Geneva

Remote attendance is welcome.
Please contact croie@luiss.it

